Rev. J. B. Halsey Installed as Dean-Sermon By Bishop Leonard-Rev. G. S. Vest Will Be Ordained To.

Yesterday was St. Mark's day. It was the anniversary of the founding of St. Mark's cathedral and was suitably observed.

It was the occasion of the formal installation of Rev. J. B. Halsey as dean of the cathedral. This ceremony oc-of the cathedral. This ceremony oc-curred at 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. Abiel Leonard, D. D., bishop of the jurisdic-tion, officiating. The service was ac-cording to the prescribed "Office of In-stitution" in the prayer book. Rev. W. E. Marson of Ogden and Rev. L. B. Ridgely read the morning prayer, while Rev. George L. Vest of Virginia read the lessons. The letter of institution was follewed by the arch-deacon, Rev. F. W. Crook. The keys of the church were deliv-ered to the dean by Captain Richards.

AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY.

There is no doubt but those who have been in the past interested in silk are aware of the fact that a bill for the establishment of sericulture in Utah was passed by the legislature, and will make themselves familiar with the provisions of the bill. The commission appointed are very anxious to have just as much work done as possible thin year. The season for raising co-coons is now upon us, and we have decided the most we will be able to do at present is to publish in the Woman's Exponent some instructions to those who wish to commence work at once. We are also prepared to furnish a limited amount of eggs to those who wish them. Persons desiring to obtain eggs from the commission will write at once to Margaret A. Caine, 732 South Fifth East, Salt Lake city, and state the number of trees and age of the trees from which they can obtain leaves, also the number of persons they expect to assist them in the work. If you are not a subscriber of the Woman's Exponent we will send you the papers containing information which will be of use to you. The establishment of this industry will also bring a new work for the horticulturists as will be of use to you. The establishment of this industry will also bring a new work for the hort-deulturists as the raising of the best varieties of mulberry stress will in the future be a very important matter; for the present the old trees should be well trimmed to cause the leaves to grow thicker upon the branches and contain much more of the essential properties than by letting them remain in the old bushy state. In some parts of the state there is still time to set out slips, so that in a few years we will have thousands of new trees growing in all parts of the state. How means are dealer's still time to set out slips, so that in a few years we will have thousands of new trees growing in all parts of the state.
